Artist Statement

Seattle-area artist Ashley Zuckerberg creates mixed-media artworks and paintings. The bold colors and sense of whimsy often depicted in her pieces are inspired by daily life: both the inspiring and amusing situations she has experienced, as well as visions that reflect serene contemplation. These, combined with subtle eccentric or humorous elements, create work that is truly entertaining and therapeutic, offering a glimpse of a world that is indisputably her own.

Or, that's what she thinks she's supposed to say. In truth, Zuckerberg couldn't begin to tell you what being an "artist" really means. She mostly enjoys making a mess with crafts and creating things she finds amusing. She hopes you do, too.
